

During this trip, we visited a lot of cities and monuments like Windsor Castle or Bath. The weather was perfect and the English class was boring.

The host family was great and welcoming. All the nights we played poker and talked with the family. We tasted some specialities of England like cream tea, fish and chips.

The trip was good and memorable. We enjoyed the time we passed in England.